

Crayon letter

Hey Duncan

It's me Brown Crayon. I love that I'm the colour of chocolatey and toffee sweets and treats, but the bad news is that I'm also the colour you know what. Yeah, that's correct...POO!

Right let's get on with it. All the crayons call me poo-face or poo-crayon. Please stop using me for cow pats, horse poo, dog poo, cat poo or zebra manure. Please may you draw pictures of poo with other crayons. I draw brown bears, woods and forests, and I love them.

From your delicious (chocolatey) friend

Brown Crayon.
