

The Hunt

Toby and I were roaming round by the river. Everything was quiet and then DEER! DEER! The boy had seen a deer. I said to Toby “We don’t normally get them round here it is normally other stuff.”

“Wow!” said Toby. The boy has broken the silence. Now all the men were yelling also trying to scare the deer. So Toby and I yelled too. We all tiptoed over being as silent as we could (which didn’t turn out very well). All you could hear was silent munching. Nothing other than munching. The whole campsite was quiet. Suddenly ATTACK! All the hunters charged at the deer. Was the deer going to survive? The deer was running with fright. All the men were launching their spears. Was one of them going to be lucky? Yes they were.

The deer froze and dropped to the ground so all the men celebrated when they got back to the campsite.

The Hunt...

It was an ordinary day when men were fishing and the little ones were watching them. Suddenly everyone heard a boy shouting and pointing to the hills. It was a reindeer. We hid behind the bushes and all you heard was nothing but munch...munch...munch...

Suddenly they jumped out, they were shouting get the reindeer! Action. They rocketed their spears at the deer but the deer got away. The next spear they ricketed it was not as powerful but it hit the deer. They were so surprised. It was crazy and the deer fell to the ground...
