Leaders can instruct others where to go
Leaders can: Have lots of people work for them. Tell you what to do. Help you when you are stuck
As a Leader you need to respect other people in your team
A leader is someone who is at the front of an adventure
Older people should be good to show younger people how to behave.
A good leader needs to listen
A Leader needs to self-motivate and encourage others
They need to set a good example and do work themselves
A leader shows people the way.
