

Hello Narwhals,

It's Miss Pretty here. I hope you have all had a nice couple of weeks at home. Thank you to all of you who have been sending emails to us on purple mash. I have really enjoyed reading and replying to them.

I was in school last week so I haven't been in this week and have been working at home. I have been doing some colouring, reading, watching some Disney films, taking part in some of the Oti Mabuse dance classes, doing some art, going for walks and catching up with my friends and family through video chats.

These next two weeks are the Easter holidays so please try to have fun and I hope you all have a great Easter.

Missing you all, Miss Pretty x

Easter Holiday Ideas

You don't have to complete any of these activities but here are some ideas to keep you busy:

- Alphabet scavenger hunt around the house and/or garden
Can you find something for every letter of the alphabet in the house and garden?
- If you have some seeds at home, try and do some planting.
- Go on a nature walk or scavenger hunt and write down the top 3 things you spotted and email what you found to your teacher.
- Read the Easter story and try and re-tell the story using a story stick (find a stick and tie things to it to represent the different parts of the story).
- Make some Easter cakes or biscuits.
- Make Easter decorations using salt dough.
- Make an Easter card and send it to Cornerstone for the teachers.
- Can you spot signs of spring outside your window or in your garden and draw or paint a picture of this?
- 30 day lego challenge.
