

I think Hope is something deep inside you that only shows when you believe in yourself.

Hope is a belief that brings people together, makes memories and keeps us going through darkness.

Hope isn't about wealth or fame. It's to Hope for others wellbeing, to be selfless and to appreciate others.

Hope means to believe in yourself and taking the right turns on your life journey.

Hope means trying hard to achieve and grow.

Hope means caring about somebody and wanting the best for them.

Hope is making good choices and learning
from the bad choices.

Hope is having good thoughts for other
not just ourselves.

Hope is believing in yourself, keeping
trying and never giving up.

Hope helps us to feel better.

Hope is believing that things will get better.

Jesus reassures people which helps them when they are feeling upset or down.

Hope is important so we can hope that the future will be better.

Hope is important as it
helps people to be happy
and keeps friendship.

Hope is important for us as we can pray for a new beginning.

Friends help us
have hope by helping us feel
proud of ourselves.
