Year 4 Harry Potter Day – Friday 8th November

Dear Parents,

As you are aware, Lizards class have been reading 'Harry Potter and the Philosopher's Stone' for our English and Guided Reading unit this half term. As part of our celebration for this topic, we will be holding a Harry Potter day on Friday 8th November.

The children will have the opportunity to create their own wands, take part in a wizarding potions class as well as watch the first film (Harry Potter and the Philosopher's Stone) as their class treat.

We would like the children to embrace the theme of this day and dress up as a character from Harry Potter. This can be a character from the first book or any of the other seven. This could be something as simple as children wearing clothes in the colour of their favourite Hogwarts house: Gryffindor = Red, Slytherin = green, Hufflepuff = yellow, Ravenclaw = blue. Please can we stress that taking part in the day is the most important element, rather than the quality of the costume.

Harry Potter and the Philosopher's Stone is a Rated PG film. Please speak to me directly if there will be any problems with your child watching this.

If you have any other questions regarding our Harry Potter day please feel free to ask.

Yours sincerely,

Fiona Phippen
